

morrison child & family services
annual report 2012

helping to rebuild families for 65 years

dear morrison friends,

We like to quote the facts and figures at Morrison because numbers don't lie. For example, according to a recent Rand Corporation survey, every dollar spent on early intervention saves $7. That means that if we spend $5,000 per child that we treat, we will save taxpayers $35,000. However, while dollars make a compelling statement the real savings at Morrison can be counted in lives. Children come to Morrison because, already at the age of 2-5 years, life has become dangerous or difficult. The children we serve are born into the challenges they experience; they did not in any way "cause" their own problems, and most are helpless to fix these problems without intervention. At Morrison we work with traumatized youth who have nowhere else to turn, helping to restore childhood, rebuild families, and renew hope.

My family, like yours, is not immune to the pressures and challenges of life. My daughter, Erin, moved here this past year with her daughter, Acacia, and soon after we all experienced the home birth of her second daughter, Georgia May. We had built a home with room for Erin and her family, and soon we would find out how important that support would be: at four months, Georgia began to show symptoms of medical fragility and a wide array of baffling developmental problems. Her problems require constant vigilance and extensive intervention. I have seen firsthand the challenges young families of special needs children experience and how different the outcomes can be with early intervention. Our family has been able to provide the necessary practical and emotional support that my daughter needs. Many families do not have the luxury of adequate support and early intervention.

All parents have dreams for their children, and these families are no different. We want our children to have happy lives that are free of abuse, leading to emotional, social, academic and vocational stability. At Morrison, our case management, therapy, education, training and advocacy services are imperative for the children and families we serve and gives them the hope of tomorrow. Only with your support – Morrison's generous and caring community of donors – can we do this vital work in support of the 6,000 children, teens and families we serve every year. Please take a moment to look at our Annual Report and reflect on the profound difference Morrison Child and Family Services makes in the lives of Oregon's most vulnerable children.

Sincerely,

Tia Gray, LCSW
Chief Executive Officer

dear friends,

I have been committed to Morrison for over 15 years, including several years serving on the Board of Directors. I am honored and humbled to have recently been elected Board Chair.

During my time here at Morrison I have seen first-hand the incredible work being done every day to help rebuild families torn apart by trauma and abuse. The commitment and level of care that the therapists and staff at Morrison show to the children is truly astounding. Many of these children have been through life events that are hard to imagine, coming from backgrounds of severe abuse, neglect, and trauma. The challenges that many of these kids have endured are tragedies that no one - of any age - should have to endure.

As the parent of an adoptee, I know the importance of building a stable and loving home for a child. I firmly believe in letting kids be kids, and I'm honored to support an organization with a 65-year legacy of restoring childhood and renewing hope for Oregon's children. On behalf of the Board of Directors, I want to thank you for your generosity in the past year, and for many years to come.

Sincerely,

Todd K. Lindsey
Board Chair

Morrison Celebrates 65 Years

In our first year in 1947, Morrison served 216 clients from a small, modest house on SW 17th and Salmon.

We have since grown to become Oregon's largest provider of children's mental health services. In 2011, the eve of our 65th anniversary, Morrison served over 6,000 children and their families. But we couldn't do it without your help and support.

Morrison is one of the most responsible and accountable non-profit organizations in the state of Oregon and has proven to be a valuable and trustworthy steward of public and private financial support. We're building on over six decades of knowledge and experience to successfully serve thousands of children and families annually.

Together with you, Morrison continues to save children, build families and change lives. We look forward to the next 65 years.

The Cadmus Group, Inc.

Corporate support has been key to Morrison's success over the years. Since 2003, The Cadmus Group has supported Morrison's Hand in Hand Day Treatment program through employee workplace giving and corporate matching gifts. Cadmus has also generously organized in-kind office giving collections for back to school and holiday giving.

Cadmus employee Amanda explained, "It is safe to say that we support Morrison because of the kids! It's always been about the kids from the start and the ways that Morrison works to improve their lives by addressing their needs from so many different levels. Additionally, we love the fact that Morrison not only has these wonderful programs to help kids, but that Morrison also measures and evaluates how their programs are doing. At Cadmus we measure and evaluate all day long and believe things that are measured tend to improve! We know that Morrison feels the same way and is always looking for ways to improve the lives of kids."

Morrison Child and Family Services delivers specialized services to children, ages birth through 18, and families coping with adversity and trauma. At the core of our work is a deep respect for the complexity of human nature and human needs—we guide children and their families through difficult issues by creating tailored treatment plans to address individuals' needs and help them live productive lives.

We are one of the only non-profits to self-fund a program evaluation department because we want to ensure the children and families we serve get the most effective, high quality support available. Using data, we review actual outcomes and modify programs accordingly. We work in partnership with schools, neighborhoods, public agencies and families to create a comprehensive range of programs to meet the needs of young people in our communities ranging from education and prevention services to outpatient counseling and residential treatment.

Founded in 1947 by Dr. Carl Morrison, Oregon's first board-certified child psychiatrist, Morrison has actively worked to improve the lives of children, their families and the local community. Our programs recognize and respect cultural differences and support the growth of children to enhance their ability to succeed in school and in life. This results in healthier, safer communities.

Morrison's mission is to partner with families and communities to provide effective and responsive services for children and youth coping with adversity and trauma.

programs spotlight: prevention and education

Morrison's programs provide early intervention and prevention services for at-risk children. Effective, early treatment prevents the need for more costly and restrictive services later. Morrison works with both children and their family (or families, in foster or proctor homes) to support growth. We address fetal alcohol and drug syndrome, abuse and neglect, mental health challenges and related issues. We also try to prevent problems by building parenting skills and providing special attention to the individual needs of each child.

Early Childhood Consultation & Incredible Years

The Incredible Years' weekly parenting groups improve child-rearing decisions and strengthen families. Morrison's successful Early Childhood Mental Health Consultation program addresses persistent unmet needs for early childhood consultation and mental health support in the child care community in Portland.

"I tell everybody I know about this class I'm taking – friends, co-workers. I feel so lucky that we're learning this for our son at age four, when it's not too late, and we are starting really early with our daughter, who is two. It's completely changed the way we parent with each other."

Listos Para Aprender

Listos Para Aprender is a school-preparedness program for families who have children younger than three or are pregnant whose primary language is Spanish or an indigenous language from Central or South America. Listos provides weekly or monthly home visits depending on the needs of the family; interactive parenting workshops and parent-child playgroups; developmental screening for children; and school readiness.

"My Listos parent educator taught me about child development and showed me activities to support and enhance my children's learning. With her guidance and advice, my children already know things I didn't learn until first grade."

Parent Mentor Program

The Parent Mentor Program provides peer mentoring to parents impacted by addiction who are involved in the DHS-Child Welfare System. Parents are matched with a Parent Mentor who has faced and conquered similar challenges. Mentors help parents to stay on track, work through the child welfare system, complete substance abuse treatment, learn positive parenting skills, build self-esteem, develop advocacy skills, connect to the recovery community and ultimately return to parenting clean and sober.

"As a Parent Mentor, I want to be the parent that I never had, and to break the cycle of addiction for families."
